11. Colleges & Universities Attended (degree, if applicable)

12. Occupation
13. Employer
14. Geographic neighborhood(s) you believe you represent
15. Cultural/social/faith/ideological or other communities you believe you represent
16. Identities you hold and/or are attributed to you
17. How did you learn about the RISE Fellows Program?
 - a. RISE San Diego website
 - b. Internet search (Google, Yahoo, other)
 - c. Social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram)
 - d. Referred by a member of the RISE Familia (fellow, alumni, faculty, staff, board member, other)
18. If referral, who referred you?
19. Who will be providing your recommendation letters?
20. Who are you? RISE fellows will be entering a fellowship program where a great deal of attention will be given to how you will challenge yourself to bring your greatest strengths to leadership of urban issues. Please share:
 - a. What are some of the strengths you will bring to this program?
 - b. Please offer evidence of how you have been able to use at least one of your strengths to bring leadership to a situation you have faced in your community, whether or not the effort was completely successful; and,
 - c. Please include what you learned about yourself by trying to do something about the issue.
21. What do you bring? In San Diego, there are many issues making the lives of urban residents challenging. Please think about the urban center where you live and where you are committed to make a difference and share the following:
 - a. A specific issue or problem your community is currently facing.
 - b. Whether you have already done something to address it or not, identify what you believe is the cause of this issue; and,
 - c. What are some steps needed to be taken to change it? Particular attention to how you could be a part of the change is important to share.

22. How well do you work with others? While RISE fellows will be working on their own leadership development and creating projects to address issues in their home communities, the program is also designed to build a leadership network charged with forging collaborative relationships across the San Diego region.

Please share what you know about yourself when it comes to working with others. It is important to offer an example of a time when you have built strong working relationships with others as well as an indication of ways you may still have something to learn about doing so better.

23. What else do you want us to know? What is one thing about yourself that is not addressed by the previous questions that you believe is important for the selection committee to know to consider you to become a RISE fellow?
24. Uploads/files requested (files can be uploaded in .pdf or .doc file formats, but not .docx):
- a. Résumé
 - b. One-paragraph professional bio (minimum 500 words)
 - c. Two (2) letters of recommendation
 - d. Professional-looking, high resolution headshot (300 dpi, 1 MB max file size)
